

Karva Chauth celebrated at Raj Bhavan

Guwahati, October 24: The first Lady of Assam Prem Mukhi along with women from different walks of life participated in the celebrations of the auspicious Karva Chauth festival at Raj Bhavan today.

Observing the festival, the first Lady Prem Mukhi said that she was very happy having been in a position to celebrate the festival along with other women of the state as the assembly of several women in celebrating the festival led to collective happiness. Terming that women are epitome of beauty, kindness, sacrifice, patience and love, she said that in the present times, women have also progressed in the field of education, politics, sports, entrepreneurship and various other profession which is indeed a very positive development. She also wished every woman a happy Karva Chauth and prayed that may all the married women stay healthy and lead a happy conjugal life to lead a healthy family.

The First lady also said that Karva Chauth is the symbol of trust, bond and affection and the women observe it to strengthen their family bonding and express their respect for their husbands. She said that she was really happy to see the participation of several women from all walks of life in celebrating the festival. As a part of their celebrations, the women also chanted prayers together for the well being, prosperity and long life of their husbands.

It may be mentioned that Karva Chauth, a traditional Hindu festival is observed by the women for the long life and wellbeing of their husbands.

Wife of Chief Minister, Assam and CMD Pride East Entertainment Pvt. Limited Riniki Bhuyan, Wife of Minister in charge of Water Resources etc. and noted actress Aimee Baruah, along with a host of other women participated in the celebration.

PRO

24.10.2021.