Assam Governor calls on Prime Minister Modi

Guwahati, October 13: Assam Governor Prof. Jagdish Mukhi who is in New Delhi to attend Governors' conference today called on Prime Minister Narendra Modi at his office.

Though the call is tipped to be one of a courtesy call on the part of the Governor after taking the gubernatorial charge on October 10, Prof. Mukhi discussed several issues of importance to Assam with the Prime Minister. Prof. Mukhi hailing Prime Minister's pro-North East orientation who addressed the region as new growth engine vowed to work to make Prime Minister's Act East Policy a success in the State. He also presented a coffee table book on Assam to the Prime Minister.
